

HOW TO USE THESE CARDS

Each card contains 3 elements:

1. a conversation question (or two) to get you thinking about the topic
2. a specific praise or prayer request
3. a Bible verse related to the prayer request which can further guide your prayer.

There is no “right way” to use the PB&J cards! Prayer is, above all, a conversation of the heart, so the goal is simply to help your family have some meaningful conversations--with each other and with God--during your prayer times. Here are a few options you might consider:

1. Read the “Praying Deeper” and “Why PB&J?” cards together as a family before you start using the cards.
2. Read one card per day at family mealtimes, going through a rotation of P, B, and J cards.
3. Use 3 cards at a time (P, B, and J) for your family devotions.
4. Read through a card each night with your child at bedtime.
5. Give cards to older children to use on their own during their personal devotions.

PRAYING DEEPER

If you hadn't eaten for a week, how would you feel about a PB&J sandwich? I'll bet you'd be pretty excited about it, wouldn't you? Eating food fills up our stomachs and gives renewed energy. But eventually, we grow hungry again, don't we? We need another sandwich to give us more energy.

Just like our stomachs, our hearts can feel “hungry” too--for God! You might notice yourself feeling worried, or crabby, or sad, or overwhelmed. Those are all signs that your heart is hungry: You need to fill up with God!

A lot of people just think of prayer as a chance to ask God for things they want, and then they move on. But that's kind of like eating a bite of a sandwich, instead of enjoying the whole thing!

In addition to telling God the things we want, we can also use prayer to praise God, thank him, and help others. And we can also listen--thinking about what God wants for us. When we add these things to our prayers, we are filling up our hearts with gratitude and trust and love.

So next time you pray, don't settle for just a bite. Take time to eat a whole prayer “sandwich” and have a deeper conversation with God.

WHY PB & J?

There's no special formula you have to use when you pray. God loves it when we talk to him, anywhere, anytime!

These prayer cards use the acronym “PB & J” as one simple way to help you remember different aspects of prayer. Here's what the letters stand for.

P is for Praise & Thanks:

There are so many reasons to praise God. And he gives us so much to be thankful for! When we take time to give praise & thanks to God, we fill our hearts with gratitude and trust.

B is for Bless Others:

We might not have the power to fix everyone's problems--but God does! We can ask God to bless others and help them with their struggles. When we remember to talk with God about the needs of others, we fill our hearts with compassion.

J is for Join with God:

What is God trying to say to us when we pray? God is always at work in our world and in our hearts--and he wants to help us grow in our faith. When we ask God to show us how we can join in that work, we fill our hearts with wisdom.
